Michael T. Lennon, MBA, Pharm.D., R.Ph., Esq., Lennon Law Offices, Boston
Before entering the practice of law full-time, Attorney Lennon worked in the pharmacy field for 17 years, 12 of those years as a registered pharmacist. During this period, Attorney Lennon practiced in several clinical settings, including community pharmacies, hospital pharmacies, nursing homes, a health maintenance organization, and a pharmaceutical company. With this health care background, Attorney Lennon has decided to focus his legal practice on complex personal injury cases with significant medical issues, including cases arising out of medical negligence, nursing home negligence, and pharmacy negligence. He maintains a limited and select client base and prosecutes only those meritorious cases on behalf of deserving victims who have been harmed by the negligence of others. Shortly after obtaining his law degree, a Doctorate in Pharmacy, and a Masters in Business Administration, Attorney Lennon gained significant experience in preparing and prosecuting serious injury cases with venerable personal injury firms. In March 2004, he founded LENNON LAW OFFICES, which focuses on the representation of seriously injured victims of others' negligent behavior. Attorney Lennon is accessible and responsive to each of his clients whom he has chosen to represent. He is personally involved with all of the firm's cases from the initial client interview through to the final resolution, whether a negotiated settlement or jury verdict at the end of trial.
